Dear Dr. Pierce:

This is to confirm arrangements for the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence Dr. Robert M. Gates to speak at the National War College on Wednesday morning, 10 December, at Arnold Auditorium, Ft. McNair. You have requested that the Deputy Director be at the main entrance at 0810.

According to Admiral Addams' letter, the speech is to cover the relationships between the Intelligence Community and national security policymakers. The suggested format is 30 minutes of remarks followed by a 15 minute coffee break and then a 45 minute Question and Answer period. Adjournment is scheduled for 1000. A microphone and podium will be available. We would appreciate your taping the speech for our historical records. Per our conversation, all students are cleared for TOP SECRET information and all remarks are held in the strictest confidence. As you have agreed, foreign nationals attending the University will not be allowed to attend the session.

Please send biographic material on those individuals that Dr. Gates will be meeting and any other pertinent information on arrangements. Enclosed is a biography and photograph of the Deputy Director in case you need them. I am looking forward to working with you in preparing for this event.

Sincerely,

[Redacted]

Dr. Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Dr. Gates:

I am pleased to learn from Dr. Al Pierce that you have agreed to address the students and faculty of the National War College on Wednesday, December 10, 1986, from 8:30 to 10:00 a.m. Your presentation on the relationships between the intelligence community and national security policymakers will make an invaluable contribution to our two-week course on national security decisionmaking. Our standard format is for the speaker to make about thirty minutes of remarks, after which we will take a short coffee break, followed by a question and answer period until 10:00 a.m.

The National War College has a well-established policy of holding all remarks in presentations such as yours in strictest confidence. This, we believe, permits the speaker to discuss his subject more freely and candidly.

Please complete the enclosed form, so that we can provide the necessary administrative support of your visit. I would appreciate it if you would send us a copy of your current biography in order to acquaint the student audience with your experience and background.

Dr. Pierce will continue to be in touch with you regarding the specifics of your presentation. Please do not hesitate to call him at 475-1935 if you have further questions or if he can be of assistance.

We look forward to welcoming you to The National War College on December 10.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

J. F. Addams
Rear Admiral, USN
